18. Penalties to be proportioned to offenses; true design of punishment.
19. Searches and seizures regulated.
20. Trial by jury in civil causes; exceptions.

*The side notes indicate the decisions of the supreme court.

All amendments are shown by notes at the bottom of the page indicating the year in which they took effect. The amendments of 1792, "so far as relates to the choice of the members of the legislature and the executive officers of the state, county treasurer and recorder of deeds," took effect on February 1, 1793, and all others on the first Wednesday of June, 1793.

The amendments of 1850 took effect September 16, 1852; those of 1876, August 1, 1877, October 1, 1878, and the first Wednesday of June, 1879, as indicated in the foot notes; those of 1889, April 2, 1889; those of 1902 on March 26, 1903; and those of 1912 on November 20, 1912.

The numbering of the sections of Part II first appeared in the Revised Statutes of 1842. In 1889, when the tenth section of Part II was stricken out, all subsequent sections were renumbered, with the result of making much confusion in citations. In this copy the original number has been placed in parenthesis at the side of the revised number.

PART FIRST

BILL OF RIGHTS.

ARTICLE 1st. All men are born equally free and independent: Therefore, all government, of right, originates from the people, is founded in consent, and instituted for the general good.

Equality of men; origin and object of government.
liii, 212. lxv, 113.

[ART.] *2d. All men have certain natural, essential, and inherent rights—among which are, the enjoying and defending life and liberty; acquiring, possessing, and protecting, property; and, in a word, of seeking and obtaining happiness.

Natural rights.
liv, 117, 590.
lxv, 103. lxvii, 59.
lxxii, 95.
lxxiii, 33, 34.
lxxv, 31.
lxxvii, 581.

[ART.] 3d. When men enter into a state of society, they surrender up some of their natural rights to that society, in order to ensure the protection of others; and, without such an equivalent, the surrender is void.

Society, its organization and purposes.
liii, 9.
lxxi, 555.

[ART.] 4th. Among the natural rights, some are, in their very nature unalienable, because no equivalent can be given or received for them. Of this kind are the Rights of Conscience.

Rights of conscience unalienable.
liii, 9. lix, 225.

[ART.] 5th. Every individual has a natural and unalienable right to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience, and reason; and no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshiping God in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; or for his religious profession, sentiments, or persuasion: provided he doth not disturb the public peace or disturb others in their religious worship.

Religious freedom recognized.
liii, 9. lviii, 240.
lix, 225. lxiv, 48.
lxix, 381.
lxxvi, 420.

[ART.] 6th. As morality and piety, rightly grounded on evangelical principles, will give the best and greatest security to government, and will lay, in the hearts of men, the strongest obligations to due subjection; and as the knowledge of these is Public worship of the Deity to be encouraged.

liii, 9. lxvi, 230.
lxxv, 424, 562.
lxxvi, 408.

*First inserted in this and following articles of Bill of Rights in General Statutes, 1867.

most likely to be propagated through a society, by the institution of the public worship of the Deity, and of public instruction in morality and religion; therefore, to promote those important purposes, the people of this state have a right to empower, and do hereby fully empower, the legislature, to authorize, from time to time, the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, within this state, to make adequate provision, at their own expense, for the support and maintenance of public Protestant teachers of piety, religion, and morality:

Right of electing religious teachers.
Sm., 1.
liii, 9, 138.
lvi, 508.
lxvi, 230.

Provided notwithstanding, that the several towns, parishes, bodies corporate, or religious societies, shall, at all times, have the exclusive right of electing their own public teachers, and of contracting with them for their support and maintenance. And no person, of any one particular religious sect or denomination, shall ever be compelled to pay towards the support of the teacher or teachers of another persuasion, sect, or denomination.

Free toleration.
liii, 9.

And every denomination of Christians, demeaning themselves quietly, and as good subjects of the state, shall be equally under the protection of the law: And no subordination of any one sect or denomination to another, shall ever be established by law.

Existing contracts not affected.

And nothing herein shall be understood to affect any former contracts made for the support of the ministry; but all such contracts shall remain, and be in the same state as if this constitution had not been made.

State sovereignty
lxvi, 369.

[ART.] 7th. The people of this state have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves as a free, sovereign, and independent state; and do, and forever hereafter shall, exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction, and right, pertaining thereto, which is not, or may not hereafter be, by them expressly delegated to the United States of America in congress assembled.

[ART.] 8th. All power residing originally in, and being derived from, the people, all the magistrates and officers of government are their substitutes and agents, and at all times accountable to them.

Accountability of magistrates and officers, lxvi, 369. lxvii, 49.

[ART.] 9th. No office or place whatsoever, in government, shall be hereditary—the abilities and integrity requisite in all, not being transmissible to posterity or relations.

No hereditary office or place.

[ART.] 10th. Government being instituted for the common benefit, protection, and security, of the whole community, and not for the private interest or emolument of any one man, family, or class of men; therefore, whenever the ends of government are perverted, and public liberty manifestly endangered, and all other means of redress are ineffectual, the people may, and of right ought, to reform the old, or establish a new government. The doctrine of nonresistance against arbitrary power, and oppression, is absurd, slavish, and destructive of the good and happiness of mankind.

Right of revolution. lii, 592. lxv, 113.

[ART.] 11th. All elections ought to be free, and every inhabitant of the state, having the proper qualifications, has equal right to elect, and be elected, into office; [but no person shall have the right to vote or be eligible to office under the constitution of this state who shall not be able to read the constitution in the English language and to write; provided, however, that this provision shall not apply to any person prevented by a physical disability from complying with its requisitions, nor to any person who now has the right to vote, nor to any person who shall be sixty years of age or upwards on the first day of January, A. D. 1904;]* [and provided further, that no person shall have the right to vote, or be eligible to office under the constitution of this state who shall have been convicted of treason, bribery, or any wilful violation of the election laws

Elections and elective franchise. lx, 385.

of this state or of the United States; but the supreme court may, on notice to the attorney-general restore the privileges of an elector to any person who may have forfeited them by conviction of such offences.]*

Protection and taxation reciprocal. Private property for public use, etc. i, 120, 130, ii, 22. iii, 534. iv, 568. vii, 35, viii, 398. x, 369. xi, 19. xvii, 47, 64. xxv, 541. xxvii, 183. xxxv, 141. xxxvi, 404. xlvii, 444. 1, 591. li, 504. liv, 590. lvi, 399, 514. lviii, 110, 549. lix, 191, 260, 480. lx, 219, 346, 522. lxi, 631. lxii, 66. lxv, 113. lxix, 33, 445. lxx, 344. lxxii, 95, 311, 532. lxxiv 90, 538, 593. lxxv, 262. lxxvi, 591, 611. lxxvii, 65. lxxviii, 388.

[ART.] 12th. Every member of the community has a right to be protected by it, in the enjoyment of his life, liberty, and property; he is therefore bound to contribute his share in the expense of such protection, and to yield his personal service when necessary, or an equivalent. But no part of a man's property shall be taken from him, or applied to public uses, without his own consent, or that of the representative body of the people. Nor are the inhabitants of this state controllable by any other laws than those to which they, or their representative body, have given their consent.

Conscientiously scrupulous, not compellable to bear arms.

[ART.] 13th. No person, who is conscientiously scrupulous about the lawfulness of bearing arms, shall be compelled thereto, provided he will pay an equivalent.

Legal remedies to be free, complete, and prompt. xxv, 539, 540. lxi, 610. lxv, 113. lxxvii, 308.

[ART.] 14th. Every subject of this state is entitled to a certain remedy, by having recourse to the laws, for all injuries he may receive in his person, property, or character; to obtain right and justice freely, without being obliged to purchase it; completely, and without any denial; promptly, and without delay; conformably to the laws.

Accused entitled to full and substantial statement of charge; not obliged to furnish evidence; may produce proofs and be fully heard, etc. Sm., 367. i, 56, 130, 140. xlviii, 57, 398. lii, 459. lv, 179. lviii, 314. lxiii, 406. lxiv, 442, 491. lxvi, 577, 633, lxvii, 279. lxviii, 496.

[ART.] 15th. No subject shall be held to answer for any crime, or offense, until the same is fully and plainly, substantially and formally, described to him; or be compelled to accuse or furnish evidence against himself. And every subject shall have a right to produce all proofs that may be favorable to himself; to meet the witnesses against him face to face, and to be fully heard in his defense, by himself, and counsel. And no subject shall be arrested, imprisoned, despoiled, or deprived of his property, immunities, or privileges, put out of the protection of the law, exiled or deprived of his life, liberty, or estate, but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land.

lxix, 512. lxxiii, 227, 548. lxxv, 516. lxxvi 309, 310. lxxviii, 222. lxxx, 535.

[ART.] 16th. No subject shall be liable to be tried, after an acquittal, for the same crime or offense. Nor shall the legislature make any law that shall subject any person to a capital punishment, (excepting for the government of the army and navy, and the militia in actual service) without trial by jury.

No person to be again tried after an acquittal; trial by jury in capital cases. lxvii, 278, 279, 280. lxxx, 395.

[ART.] 17th. In criminal prosecutions, the trial of facts, in the vicinity where they happened, is so essential to the security of the life, liberty, and estate, of the citizen, that no crime or offense ought to be tried in any other county than that in which it is committed;—except in cases of general insurrection in any particular county, when it shall appear to the judges of the superior court, that an impartial trial cannot be had in the county where the offense may be committed, and upon their report, the [legislature]* shall think proper to direct the trial in the nearest county in which an impartial trial can be obtained.

Criminal trials in county, except in general insurrection. xx, 250. lvi, 175. lxi, 423, 426. lxvi, 504. lxxvii, 288.

[ART.] 18th. All penalties ought to be proportioned to the nature of the offense. No wise legislature will affix the same punishment to the crimes of theft, forgery, and the like, which they do to those of murder and treason. Where the same undistinguishing severity is exerted against all offenses, the people are led to forget the real distinction in the crimes themselves, and to commit the most flagrant with as little compunction as they do† the lightest [offenses]:‡ For the same reason a multitude of sanguinary laws is both impolitic and unjust. The true design of all punishments being to reform, not to exterminate mankind.

Searches and seizures regulated.
i, 140. xxv, 541. xxxvi, 64. xlvii, 549. lxvi, 177. lxviii, 48. lxxi, 102. lxxiii. 548.

[ART.] 19th. [Every subject hath a right to be secure from all unreasonable searches and seizures of his person, his houses, his papers, and all his possessions. Therefore, all warrants to search suspected places, or arrest a person for examination or trial, in prosecutions for criminal matters, are contrary to this right, if the cause or foundation of them be not previously supported by oath or affirmation; and if the order, in a warrant to a civil officer, to make search in suspected places, or to arrest one or more suspected persons or to seize their property, be not accompanied with a special designation of the persons or objects of search, arrest, or seizure; and no warrant ought to be issued, but in cases, and with the formalities, prescribed by law.]*

Trial by jury in civil causes.
ii, 422. ix, 336. xi, 19. xviii, 389, 415. xix, 362. xxv. 539. xxxv, 134. xli, 550. xlviii, 57. li, 455. lv, 179. lvi, 512. lvii, 55, 110, 146, 334. lviii, 60, 182, 425. lix, 350, 561. lxii, 231. lxv, 201. lxviii, 493, 496. lxix, 522. lxxi, 326. lxxii, 600. lxxv, 537. lxxvii, 308.

[ART.] 20th. In all controversies concerning property—and in all suits between two or more persons, except in cases in which it has been heretofore otherwise used and practiced, [and except in cases in which the value in controversy does not exceed one hundred dollars, and title of real estate is not concerned]† the parties have a right to a trial by jury and this method of procedure shall be held sacred, unless, in cases arising on the high seas and such as relates to mariners' wages the legislature shall think it necessary hereafter to alter it.

Only qualified persons to serve as jurors, and to be fully compensated.

[ART.] 21st. In order to reap the fullest advantage of the inestimable privilege of the trial by jury, great care ought to be taken, that none but qualified persons should be appointed to serve; and such ought to [be]‡ fully compensated for their travel, time, and attendance.

†Inserted, 1877.
‡Not in engrossed copy of 1793.

[ART.] 22d. The liberty of the press is essential to the security of freedom in a state: It ought, therefore, to be inviolably preserved. Liberty of the press.

[ART.] 23d. Retrospective laws are highly injurious, oppressive, and unjust. No such laws therefore, should be made, either for the decision of civil causes, or the punishment of offenses. Retrospective laws prohibited. Sm., 420. i, 199. iii, 481, 534. iv, 16, 287. x, 386. xviii, 547. xxiii, 382. xxiv, 351. xxvii, 294, xxxii, 413. xxxix, 304, 377, 505. li, 376, 383, 559. liv, 167. lvi, 466. lxiv, 295, 409. lxv, 37, 126. lxviii, 60. lxx, 24. lxxix, 438. lxxx, 294, 464.

[ART.] 24th. A well regulated militia is the proper, natural, and sure defense, of a state. Militia.

[ART.] 25th. Standing armies are dangerous to liberty, and ought not to be raised, or kept up, without the consent of the legislature. Standing armies.

[ART.] 26th. In all cases, and at all times, the military ought to be under strict subordination to, and governed by, the civil power. Military, subject to civil power.

[ART.] 27th. No soldier in time of peace, shall be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner; and in time of war, such quarters ought not to be made but by the civil magistrate, in a manner ordained by the legislature. Quartering of soldiers.

[ART.] 28th. No subsidy, charge, tax, impost, or duty, shall be established, fixed, laid, or levied, under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the people, or their representatives in the legislature, or authority derived from that body. Taxes to be levied only by the people or legislature. xiv, 98. lxxiv, 528, 535, 539. lxxvi, 611.

[ART.] 29th. The power of suspending the laws, or the execution of them, ought never to be exercised but by the legislature, or by authority derived therefrom, to be exercised in such particular cases only as the legislature shall expressly provide for. Suspension of laws by the legislature only.

[ART.] 30th. The freedom of deliberation, speech, and debate, in either house of the legislature, is so essential to the rights of the people, that it cannot be the foundation of any action, complaint, or prosecution, in any other court or place whatsoever. Freedom of speech.

Meetings of legislature for what purposes.

[ART.] 31st. [The legislature shall assemble for the redress of public grievances, and for making such laws as the public good may require.]*

Rights of assembly, instruction, and, petition. lxxi. 471.

[ART.] 32d. The people have a right, in an orderly and peaceful manner, to assemble and consult upon the common good, give instructions to their representatives, and to request of the legislative body, by way of petition or remonstrance, redress of the wrongs done them, and of the grievances they suffer.

Excessive bail, fines, and punishments prohibited. i, 374. xxv, 541.

[ART.] 33d. No magistrate, or court of law, shall demand excessive bail or sureties, impose excessive fines, or inflict cruel or unusual punishments.

Martial law limited.

[ART.] 34th. No person can, in any case, be subjected to law martial, or to any pains or penalties by virtue of that law, except those employed in the army or navy, and except the militia in actual service, but by authority of the legislature.

[ART.] 35th. [It is essential to the preservation of the rights of every individual, his life, liberty, property, and character, that there be an impartial interpretation of the laws, and administration of justice. It is the right of every citizen to be tried by judges as impartial as the lot of humanity will admit. It is therefore not only the best policy, but for the security of the rights of the people, that the judges of the supreme judicial court should hold their offices so long as they behave well; subject, however, to such limitations, on account of age, as may be provided by the constitution of the state; and that they should have honorable salaries, ascertained and established by standing laws.]†

Pensions. lxxviii, 617.

[ART.] 36th. Economy being a most essential virtue in all states, especially in a young one; no pension shall be granted, but in consideration of actual services; and such pensions ought to be granted with great caution, by the legislature, and never for more than one year at a time.

EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

[ART.] 37th. In the government of this state, the three essential powers thereof, to wit, the legislative, executive, and judicial, ought to be kept as separate from, and independent of, each other, as the nature of a free government will admit, or as is consistent with that chain of connection that binds the whole fabric of the constitution in one indissoluble bond of union and amity.

The legislative, executive and judicial departments to be kept separate.
i, 199. lii, 387. lviii, 451. lxiii, 574. lxxii, 541. lxxiv, 607.

[ART.] 38th. A frequent recurrence to the fundamental principles of the constitution, and a constant adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, industry, frugality, and all the social virtues, are indispensably necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty and good government; the people ought, therefore, to have a particular regard to all those principles in the choice of their officers and representatives, and they have a right to require of their law-givers and magistrates, an exact and constant observance of them, in the formation and execution of the laws necessary for the good administration of government.

Social virtues inculcated.

two houses may desire, and to call it together sooner than the time to which it may be adjourned, or prorogued, if the welfare of the state should require the same.

Powers and duties of governor as commander-in-chief; limitation.

[ART. 50 (51).] The governor of this state for the time being, shall be commander-in-chief of the army and navy, and all the military forces of the state, by sea and land; and shall have full power by himself, or by any chief commander, or other officer, or officers, from time to time, to train, instruct, exercise and govern the militia and navy; and for the special defense and safety of this state, to assemble in martial array, and put in warlike posture, the inhabitants thereof, and to lead and conduct them, and with them to encounter, repulse, repel, resist and pursue by force of arms, as well by sea as by land, within and without the limits of this state; and also to kill, slay, destroy, if necessary, and conquer by all fitting ways, enterprise and means, all and every such person and persons as shall, at any time hereafter, in a hostile manner, attempt or enterprise the destruction, invasion, detriment or annoyance of this state; and to use and exercise over the army and navy, and over the militia in actual service, the law martial in time of war, invasion, and also in rebellion, declared by the legislature to exist, as occasion shall necessarily require: And surprise, by all ways and means whatsoever, all and every such person or persons, with their ships, arms, ammunition, and other goods, as shall in a hostile manner invade, or attempt the invading, conquering or annoying this state; and in fine, the governor hereby is entrusted with all other powers incident to the office of captain-general and commander-in-chief, and admiral, to be exercised agreeably to the rules and regulations of the constitution, and the laws of the land; provided, that the governor shall not, at any time hereafter, by virtue of any power by this constitution granted, or hereafter to be granted to him by the legislature, transport any of the inhabitants of this state, or oblige them to march out of the limits of the same, without their free and voluntary consent, or the consent of the general court, nor grant commissions for exercising the law martial in any case, without the advice and consent of the council.

Pardoning power.

[ART. 51 (52).] The power of pardoning offenses, except such as persons may be convicted of before the senate, by impeachment of the house, shall be in the governor, by and with the advice of council: But no charter of pardon, granted by the governor, with advice of council, before conviction, shall avail the party pleading the same, notwithstanding any general or particular expressions contained therein, descriptive of the offense or offenses intended to be pardoned.

Militia officers, removal of.
lxxix, 535.

[ART. 52 (53).] No officer duly commissioned to command in the militia shall be removed from his office, but by the address of both houses to the governor, or by fair trial in courtmartial, pursuant to the laws of the state for the time being.

Staff and non-commissioned officers, by whom appointed.

[ART. 53 (54).] The commanding officers of the regiments shall appoint their adjutants and quartermasters; the brigadiers, their brigade-majors; the major-generals, their aids; the captains and subalterns, their non-commissioned officers.

Division of militia into brigades, regiments, and companies.

[ART. 54 (55).] The division of the militia into brigades, regiments and companies, made in pursuance of the militia laws now in force, shall be considered as the proper division of the militia of this state, until the same shall be altered by some future law.

Moneys drawn from treasury only by warrant of governor, pursuant to law.
lxxii, 603.
lxxiv, 607.
lxxv, 626.
lxxix, 24.

[ART. 55 (56).] No moneys shall be issued out of the treasury of this state, and disposed of, (except such sums as may be appropriated for the redemption of bills of credit, or treasurer's notes, or for the payment of interest arising thereon) but by warrant under the hand of the governor for the time being, by and with the advice and consent of the council, for the necessary support and defense of this state, and for the necessary protection and preservation of the inhabitants thereof, agreeably to the acts and resolves of the general court.

[ART. 56 (57).] All public boards, the commissary-general, all superintending officers of public magazines and stores belonging to this state, and all commanding officers of forts and garrisons within the same, shall, once, in every three months, officially, and without requisition, and at other times when required by the governor, deliver to him an account of all goods, stores, provisions, ammunition, cannon, with their appendages and all small arms, with their accoutrements, and of all other public property under their care respectively; distinguishing the quantity and kind of each, as particularly as may be; together with the condition of such forts and garrisons: And the commanding officer shall exhibit to the governor, when required by him true and exact plans of such forts, and of the land and sea, or harbor or harbors adjacent.

Accounts of military stores, etc., to be rendered quarterly.

[ART. 57 (58).] The governor and council shall be compensated for their services, from time to time, by such grants as the general court shall think reasonable.

Compensation of governor and council.

[ART. 58 (59).] Permanent and honorable salaries shall be established by law, for the justices of the superior court.

Salaries of judges.

Population of New Hampshire

NUMBER AND DISTRIBUTION OF INHABITANTS

Population of the State.—New Hampshire was one of the original thirteen States. Its population on April 1, 1930, according to the Fifteenth Census, was 465,293, which represents an increase of 22,210, or 5.0 per cent, as compared with the population on January 1, 1920. The total land area of the State, as shown in Table 3, is 9,031 square miles.* The average number of inhabitants per square mile in 1930 was 51.5, as compared with 49.1 in 1920.

Table 1 shows the population of New Hampshire from 1790, the year of the first Federal census, to 1930, together with the increase in each decade.

Counties, cities, and minor civil divisions.—In the tables which follow (Tables 2 to 6) the population of New Hampshire is shown by counties, cities, and other minor civil divisions, with some comparative figures from previous censuses.

Cities of 10,000 or more.—There are nine cities in the state which had a population of 10,000 or more in 1930. Table 2 shows for these cities the population at each census for which figures are available, together with the increase during each decade. The figures shown for the earlier censuses represent, in many cases, the population of the town prior to its incorporation as a city. Manchester, the largest city, first attained a population of 10,000 between 1840 and 1850. Rochester is the only city added to this group following the census of 1920.

Minor civil divisions.—Table 4 shows the population of each county by towns, cities, and other minor civil divisions. The more thickly settled counties are divided into towns and cities, but in Carroll County there are 2 "locations" and in Coos County there are 8 "grants," 6 "purchases," 6 "townships," and 3 "locations." Of the civil divisions known as "grants" and "purchases," 7 have had no population returned at any of the last three censuses and so are omitted from the list of minor civil divisions in Table 4.

*Coos.—The absence of population in any year indicates that none was returned at that census. Seven civil divisions of this county for which no population has been returned at any of the three censuses are not included in the table; these divisions are as follows: Bean's grant, Chandler's purchase, Crawford's purchase, Cutts' grant, Hadley's purchase, Low and Burbank's grant, and Sargent's purchase. Figures for Pittsburg town in 1920 include population reported for Colebrook Academy grant (15), Hubbard township (358), and Webster township (51).

STATE EMBLEMS

Sections 1 and 4 of Chapter 8 of the Public Laws of New Hampshire were amended by Chapter 133 of the Laws of 1931, so that said Chapter 8 now reads as follows:

STATE EMBLEMS

1. Flag. The state flag shall be of the following color and design: The body or field shall be blue and shall bear upon its center in suitable proportion and colors a representation of the state seal; the seal shall be surrounded by a wreath of laurel leaves with nine stars interspersed. When used for military purposes the flag shall conform to the regulations of the United States.

2. When Displayed. It shall be displayed above the state house whenever the legislature is in session and during meetings of the governor and council when expedient, and upon such other occasions as the governor may designate.

3. Flower. The purple lilac, Syringa vulgaris, is the state flower of New Hampshire.

4. Seal. The seal of the state shall be two inches in diameter, circular, with the following detail and no other: A field crossed by a straight horizon line of the sea, above the center of the field; concentric with the field the rising sun, exposed above the horizon about one third of its diameter, the field encompassed with laurel; across the field for the full width within the laurel a broadside view of the frigate Raleigh, on the stocks; the ship's bow dexter and higher than the stern; the three lower masts shown in place, together with the fore, main and mizzen tops, shrouds and mainstays; an ensign staff at the stern flies the United States flag authorized by act of Congress June 14, 1777; a jury staff on the mainmast and another on the foremast each flies a pennant; flags and pennants are streaming to the dexter side; the hull is shown without a rudder; below the ship the field is divided into land and water by a double diagonal line whose highest point is sinister; no detail is shown anywhere on the water, nor any on the land between the water and the stocks except a granite boulder on the dexter side;

STATE · OF · NEW HAMPSHIRE · 1776 · · SEAL · OF · THE ·

encircling the field is the inscription, SEAL . OF . THE STATE . OF . NEW HAMPSHIRE, the words separated by round periods, except between the parts of New Hampshire; at the lowest point of the inscription is the date 1776, flanked on either side by a five-pointed star, which group separates the beginning and end of the inscription; the whole form and design to be as follows:

NEW HAMPSHIRE'S VOTE ON REPEAL

JULY 11, 1933

NEW HAMPSHIRE'S VOTE ON REPEAL OF THE 18TH AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES

Under the Eighteenth Amendment, nation-wide prohibition went into effect January 16, 1920. The amendment was ratified by forty-six of the forty-eight states.

After twelve years Congress voted to resubmit to the forty-eight States the question of Federal prohibition. By votes of sixty-three to twenty-three in the Senate and 289 to 121 in the House, the 72d Congress passed a new amendment to the Constitution which, if ratified by thirty-six states, would bring to an end the era of nation-wide prohibition of the liquor traffic.

In 1932 both presidential candidates in their speeches advocated a repeal amendment. The Republicans then led by President Hoover urged that the new amendment provide definitely against the return of the saloon, but the amendment passed by Congress left that problem for the individual states to handle. It provided that the Eighteenth Amendment should be repealed and that the transportation or importation of liquor into any State, in violation of the laws of that State, should be prohibited.

Like the Eighteenth Amendment, the prohibition repeal amendment provided that it must be ratified within seven years to become effective but, unlike any previous amendment, it provided that ratification must be by conventions in the several States rather than by the State legislatures, as had been customary. (U. S. Const., Art. V.)

A communication dated February 21, 1933, was received by the Governor of this State, in which was enclosed a certified copy of the Resolution of Congress for the repeal of said Eighteenth Amendment, etc., with the request that this Joint Resolution be submitted to a convention in this State "for such action as may be had."

Accordingly "An Act providing for a Convention to pass on a proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the United States" was passed by our New Hampshire legislature, approved May 6, 1933, and became Chapter 110 of the Laws of 1933.

Among other things, this chapter provided for the choice of twenty candidates, ten of whom would be elected delegates to said Convention by the voters of the State, on June 20, 1933. Ten of these candidates assented to the placing of their names on the ballot as pledged to vote For Ratification and ten, Against Ratification of the Repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

The candidates for delegates were as follows:

For Ratification	Against Ratification
Robert E. Gould, Newport	Charles E. Brackett, Greenland
Robert C. Murchie, Concord	Burt R. Cooper, Rochester
Norma R. T. Ordway, Berlin	John R. Goodnow, Keene
James P. Richardson, Hanover	John A. Hammond, Gilford
Ashton Rollins, Dover	Margaret E. Hunter, Tuftonboro
John L. Sullivan, Manchester	Gertrude W. Osborne, Weare
Harvey Clinton Taylor, Portsmouth	Alfred T. Pierce, Claremont
Virgil D. White, Ossipee	Charles B. Ross, Lebanon
Abby L. Wilder, Rindge	James S. Shaw, Franklin
Maurice G. Wiley, Laconia	Elbridge W. Snow, Whitefield

The ten favoring Ratification were the persons elected to attend the Convention, the date of which was fixed by the Governor as July 11, 1933. At the Convention, nine of the ten delegates were present and voted in favor of the Repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, there being no votes against Repeal.

July 12, 1933, a certificate to this effect was duly signed and attested by the proper officials and forwarded to the Secretary of State of the United States at Washington, D. C.

In the tables next following are given summaries of the votes received, June 20, 1933, by each candidate who would vote for or against ratification, also the averages of the totals are given.

These summaries are followed by tables showing the figures for the person who received the maximum vote in each town and ward, both for and against ratification.

It is reported that the long fight for repeal of the Eighteenth (Prohibition) Amendment to the United States Constitution came to a victorious conclusion on November 7, when the thirty-sixth State voted for the adoption of the Twenty-first Amendment. Six states voted on November 7, but only three voting for the Twenty-first Amendment were necessary to make its ratification certain. Actually the amendment was ratified by the votes of four states, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Utah and Kentucky. North Carolina and South Carolina voted against ratification.

"The legal date of the end of national prohibition was December 5, [1933] when conventions in Ohio, Utah and Pennsylvania voted for ratification as required by the popular vote in those states."

AFTER REPEAL

On May 7, 1934, a precept was issued by the Governor, John G. Winant, by and with the advice and consent of the Council, summoning the General Court to meet in special session, May 14, 1934, the welfare of the State requiring such assembling.

At this session which was adjourned on June 4, was passed House Bill No. 489, entitled "An Act to regulate the traffic in intoxicating liquor." This was approved by the Governor and became Chapter 3, of the Laws of the Special Session of 1934.

DIRECT PRIMARY

September 11, 1934

DIRECT PRIMARY, 1934

Persons voted for at a primary, who receive a plurality of all the votes cast by a party, shall be candidates of that party for the office designated in the ballot.—P. L. 25: 45.

The direct primary election was held September 11, 1934, with candidates of the Republican and Democratic parties participating.

In the summary immediately following are the full names and residences of the candidates also their total votes. Then follow tables carrying the vote in detail and giving only the last names of the candidates.

The first tables give by counties the votes for governor. The next tables give by districts the votes for representatives in Congress, the votes for councilors, and the votes for state senators. Then follow the tables showing the votes for county officers.

RECOUNTS AFTER THE PRIMARY

After the primary election nineteen recounts of ballots were conducted by the secretary of state, five of these being in Republican contests and fourteen in Democratic contests. By only two of these recounts were the nominations of candidates affected. The two changes are explained as follows:

In Manchester, Ward 7, at a recount for representatives, John J. Berry lost six votes, leaving his total only 390, while Alcide R. Gagnon gained sixteen votes making his total 395 and transferring the nomination to Mr. Gagnon.

In Manchester, Ward 8, Henry Farland lost five votes at a recount for representatives, leaving his total 361, while J. Vincent Moran had 365 votes—unchanged by the recount, and he became the nominee of his ward in place of Mr. Farland.

Other changes which may be noted in the tabulation of figures did not affect the nomination of candidates whose names appear with the figures of the "return" after the primary, followed by the figures of the recount. The asterisk indicates the nominee of the party.

REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION, 1934

The Republican state convention met at Concord, Wednesday, September 26, 1934, with Edgar H. Hunter of Hanover, president, and adopted the following platform:

PLATFORM OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY

The Republican Party has always placed patriotism above partisanship and to this end will continue to co-operate with the Federal Administration in all measures to bring about national recovery, which are consistent with sound economic practice and the principles of the Constitution. We shall consider it our patriotic duty to firmly oppose all acts which do not meet these conditions.

With these views the Republicans of New Hampshire desire their candidates for Congress to exert every effort to initiate and support legitimate and constitutional measures for the relief of the needy, the employment of the idle and the restoration of prosperity to the United States; but, they pledge them to offer opposition to the further surrender of the powers of Congress to anyone whosoever and to all attempts however well intended, to substitute an irresponsible bureaucracy for representative and constitutional government.

In state affairs they pledge the Governor and his Constitutional advisors, and the Republican members of the Legislature:

To a policy of the most rigid economy in public expenditures and a systematic reduction of the state debt.

To a policy of relief—placing the administration with the local and county officials with only such regulation as may be necessary to secure state and federal funds to the end that the needy shall be properly cared for.

To a policy of co-operation with our sportsmen in establishing a responsible administration for the Fish and Game Department and the adoption of a long range program for the future development of our wild life resources.

To a policy of approving the benefits to the workers obtained through provisions of industrial codes which have eliminated child labor, and to the establishment of shorter hours and negotiations wherever necessary of interstate compacts to perpetuate these gains, and to promote other progressive labor legislation.

To the principle of unemployment insurance and to the ratification of the interstate minimum wage compact.

To the improved administration of public justice by a more effective probational system for juvenile offenders and the coordination of law enforcement agencies.

To the principle of the state liquor control system which eliminated private profit and opposition to every effort of commercialized liquor interests to violate this principle.

To a permanent policy of state maintenance of trunk lines and state aid roads and continuation and extension of the employment program on rural roads.

To an adoption of a state milk marketing plan and co-operation on a regional plan with the other New England States.

To a forward looking program for the development of the industrial, recreational, and agricultural assets of the state, and the adoption of state planning upon a permanent basis.

To a policy that preference be given to New Hampshire workers on New Hampshire jobs and New Hampshire firms on New Hampshire contracts.

And to these ends the Republicans of New Hampshire invite the active co-operation of all with whom they have partisan relationship; and invite also all other voters who share these views, to join with them in carrying this program into effect upon election day.

We have faith in those we have nominated and to them we pledge our support.

OFFICERS OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE COMMITTEE

THOMAS P. CHENEY, Chairman, Laconia.
MRS. SARAH M. MERCER, Vice Chairman, Nashua.

DEMOCRATIC ORGANIZATION, 1934

The Democratic state convention met at Concord, Tuesday, October 2, 1934, and organized by the election of Amos N. Blandin of Bath, as president, and adopted the following platform:

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM

In the Nation

We take just pride in the achievements of the national administration under the direction of our great President, Franklin D. Roosevelt, who, taking office in the midst of catastrophe, has led the country far along the road to recovery. We pledge our undivided support to all phases of his splendid recovery program.

In the State

Congratulating past Democratic legislators on their unfaltering years of effort to reduce the hours of labor in industries and in securing much other far-sighted and humane labor legislation which has since become national law through the achievements of our President, Franklin D. Roosevelt, we pledge our party and our candidates again to the championship of the cause of labor, and promise our efforts to secure and maintain:

(1) Reasonable hours of employment;
(2) A fixed minimum wage;
(3) Unemployment insurance;
(4) Abolition of child labor; and
(5) Through interstate compacts permanently to make secure for the workers of New Hampshire, through New Hampshire law, the above specified and other benefits now derived from the emergency legislation and regulations of President Roosevelt's administration.

The Democratic party points with just pride to the support it has always given to the educational institutions of this state. It notes with special pride the efficient service which the University has rendered to the entire state. The Democratic party pledges its continued support to education.

We pledge our Democratic State administration to complete co-operation with the Democratic Federal administration on all projects to relieve distress and unemployment among the people of New Hampshire.

Condemning the extravagance and inefficiency of the present Welfare Relief Administration, we promise to restore to county and local officials the authority to administer relief, and announce our determination that whatever supervisory force is needed to fulfill Federal requirements shall be composed of bona fide New Hampshire citizens.

Believing "Mother Aid" to be the most humane, the most constructive and the most economical solution of the orphan problem, we urge the extension of this type of relief to provide for all needy widows with children under the age of sixteen years.

We recall with pride the economy of the administration of our former Democratic Governor, Hon. Fred H. Brown, now our United States Senator, in whose term a state deficit was converted into a surplus of more than $600,000; and we share with all thinking citizens of New Hampshire their genuine alarm at the constant increase in the state debt in the last ten years of Republican administration to its present unprecedented figure,—an amazing debt—accumulated despite the collection from our people of the highest taxes in New Hampshire history.

We urge the utmost economy possible without the impairment of the vital functions of state government.

We favor the continuance and enlargement of the present plan of contribution by the state for the maintenance of Class V Roads and approve the state maintenance of trunk line and state aid roads.

Desiring to protect the New Hampshire Dairy Industry from further ruthless competition within the state, we favor the establishment of a State Milk Control Board for the proper protection of the interests of producers, distributors, and consumers under such a plan as will permit the development of a co-ordinated program with similar existing agencies in the other New England states.

Realizing the great difficulties of rural protection in modern times, we urge the establishment of an efficient and well-equipped State Police to insure to citizens in the rural parts of our state security in their persons and in their property.

Well aware that repeal has presented us with new problems and anxious to encourage sound temperance, we endorse the principle of State Stores and urge the enforcement of sane and sensible regulations for the sale of beer. To the return of the saloon we are unalterably opposed.

Believing that fishing and hunting should be New Hampshire's greatest attractions for non-residents as well as a source of enjoyment to our own citizens, we urge an immediate reform in the Fish and Game Department and a fixed income therefor sufficient to insure an effective and well-planned campaign of restoration as well as of conservation.

Aware that the one asset of New Hampshire susceptible of the greatest development is the natural charm and attraction of our State, and realizing the opportunity to make New Hampshire the year-round vacation land of the East, we recommend a vigorous and effective campaign to make known to non-residents the beauty and advantages of New Hampshire in all seasons of the year, and the adoption of a practical State plan to develop New Hampshire's agricultural, industrial and recreational facilities.

We favor the employment of New Hampshire labor and materials in all public construction in this State and believe that New Hampshire bidders should be favored wherever possible.

To bring about the enactment of these principles into law we invite the co-operation of all forward looking citizens of our State, and to our candidates we pledge our loyal support.

LOCAL OPTION

Section 35, Chapter 3 of the Laws of the Special Session of 1934, requires the following questions to be submitted to the voters in cities and towns on the usual ballot at each biennial election:

"Shall state stores be operated by permission of the State Liquor Commission in this city or town, under the provisions of 'An Act to regulate the traffic in intoxicating liquor,' passed at the 1934 special session of the general court?"

"Shall beverages be sold in this city or town under permits granted by the State Liquor Commission under the provisions of chapter 99 of the Laws of 1933, and amendments thereto?"
